Frequently Asked Questions

- Q: I have an open case at OAH. I registered for a Portal account to submit additional filings, but when I searched for my case, it was not available for me to access. What do I do?
- A: If you did not open your case through the Portal, the email address you used to create your Portal account may not be linked to your case. To get an email address on file, please submit a written filing by other available means to update your contact information, including the email address you used to create your Portal account.
- Q: I searched for a case, but I cannot see any information about it. How can I access it?
- A: Only litigants involved in a case may access the case through the Portal to file documents. The Portal is not designed is a case search to access OAH case information for unaffiliated parties. If you search for a case, but you are not associated with it, you will not be able to access any information about the case.
